This contract agreement is entered into between Southern Nevada Anthropomorphic Events (henceforth "SNAE"), a Nevada NRS 82 nonprofit corporation, and Run, Definitely Run!, a musical group (henceforth, "the band" or "RDR".) Run, Definitely Run agrees to perform at SNAE's Las Vegas Fur Con ("LVFC") 2023 event under the following terms.

CONVENTION OBLIGATIONS:

SNAE and its event, LVFC, shall be responsible for providing the band with its equipment and audio-visual needs, as specified in a tech rider provided by the band.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION:

The band shall receive:

- Four (4) complementary hotel rooms, one (1) of which shall be the highest upgraded suite possible; as of this agreement, this is the two story, two bedroom suite.
- Complementary flights for its members and support staff.
- One (1) complementary Super Sponsor badge per member and support staff.
- The right to charge on-site meals to the room.

BAND OBLIGATIONS:

Members of RDR shall, in addition to their performance, be asked to:

- Participate in a Guest of Honor meet and greet with convention attendees where they will provide signatures and photographs free of charge if requested.
- Collectively host or participate in a minimum of five (5) panels. Members of RDR are free to allocate these panels among themselves, with all panels subject to approval by LVFC's Programming Department.

AGREEMENT TERM LENGTH:

This agreement shall last until the conclusion of a single event, Las Vegas Fur Con 2023, to be held April 14-16, 2023.

UNILATERAL TERMINATION:

Both parties reserve the right to terminate the agreement without penalty out of concern that partnership may affect the party's reputation, brand or financial well-being.

RDR may unilaterally terminate this agreement if SNAE does not provide the promised equipment or compensation by the event dates, April 14-16, 2023.

FORCE MAJEURE:

Both parties agree to not hold the other liable in case of unforeseen events making performance and attendance impossible or dangerous, such as war, crime, epidemic or strike.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

This agreement shall be effective from the date of signing by both parties' representatives.
